BURNS IN HOME OF HOLY JUMPERS

While the Holy Jumpers were out on the street gathering up their audience or their evening meeting about 8 o'clock lamp exploded in their hall at 272 South lain street and the entire fire department was called out. The oil ran all ver the floor, setting the room ablaze, he flames could be seen from the street. Before the fire department arrived sevral men rushed upstairs and commenced ighting the flames. When the firemen eached the place the blaze, which had or gained much headway, was extinuished without much trouble. A small out was burned in the floor and considerable plaster fell from the ceiling. The amage, however, did not amount to rch that might be to the navy what famous and stirring "Stars and pes Forever" has become to the army, refore his musical famor took a naulturn in the new composition which received the jolly and characteristic of "Jack Tar."

The new march was given to the world under the most favorable auspices at its first performance at the Royal Albert Hall. London, last year, when the great audience to hear "Jack Tar" included King Edward VII and Queen Alexandra, as well as the Prince and Princess of Wales, and their shites. The march was played by the massed bands of the Household brigade, including the Coldstream guards, Grenadier guards, Scots guards and Irist guards more than 200 musicians under the direction of the senior bandmaster. "Jack Tar" will figure conspicuously on the programme of the Sousa concert at the tabernacle tonight. Mr. Sousa will be assisted by Stelle Liebling, soprano, and Jessie Straus, violinist, as soloists.
